

Abbreviated Vitae

Amy Caprile
1636 Concourse Ct
Rapid City, SD 57701
acaprile@bhws.com

Current Employment and Previous Experience

- 2002-present Employment Specialist at Community Transitions. Provide job development services, develop curriculum regarding job search methods and activities, and job retention. Aid individuals in job search, including job development, job coaching
- 2001-2002 Sexton/Office manager Pine Lawn Memorial Park. Perform a variety of tasks, including counseling and sales of burial arrangements, managing burial and financial records, developing computerized client data management system, scheduling services.
- 1995-2001 Owner/Manager of Daily Grind Coffeehouse. Responsible for all aspects of growing business, including hiring and training employees, customer service, inventory control, accounts payable. Expanded into Rapid City's first internet café. Promoted local Black Hills music by expanding JamFest from 4 acts to well over 25 acts of all original music over 4 years.
- 1991-1994 High School Science and Math Teacher. Developed and implemented a primarily hands-on science program from basic California curriculum requirements for freshman at all levels of skill in a culturally diverse classroom environment. Developed CORE program with fellow teachers to integrate science education into other curriculum areas. Developed and implemented alternative evaluation methods to assess student progress across multiple modalities, emphasizing effective student self-evaluation.

Education

California Mathematics Teaching Credential received 1991

California Science Teaching Credential Received 1991

Graduate, SCIP program (Graduate Science Credential Internship Program)
University of California at Davis, 1991

Bachelor of Science Biological Sciences, minor in psychology
Received from University of California at Davis, 1988